

Hacienda del Mar

Overview:

This tropical beachfront home was originally a 50+ year-old cotton barn, located on a nearby farm. The original structure was taken down, transported to the new location and reassembled keeping the integrity of the original design yet adding a modern twist. All of the furniture made locally, using the wood that was leftover from the original barn. The home has a modern yet rustic feel, and has all the conveniences you need such as WiFi, air conditioning in two bedrooms, brand new comfortable beds and linens, and a fully equipped "cooks" kitchen. There is an upper loft area (perfect for yoga!), a catwalk around the entire upper level of the house, and large wrap around porch with 4 hammocks, 4 lounge chairs and plenty of hang out space. There is an additional outside cooking area with a charcoal and propane grill, sink and plenty of counter space and bar. The whole upper level is a loft with beautiful wide planked hardwood floors.
